

WARD DOES 9 HOLES IN 36Former State Golf Champion Plays on University Links.

Jaime Ward of Kansas City, for two years the state golf champion, has been in Columbia the last few days. He returned to Kansas City yesterday to compete in an exhibition match at the Mission Hills course. His opponents will be Ray and Vardon, the British champions.

While here Ward played nine holes on the University Links turning in a score of 36. This was his first time on the course here.

The American and National League scores can be obtained at the Recreation Billiard Parlors. We have a telegraph service that gives us the scores as soon as the games are finished. Our phone number is 927.
